5. Course Officials Training

Adam Lee gave an overview of changes to the Snowsport England Course Officials Training which will be implemented this autumn. Adam advised that they hope to provide training for course officials which will also include practical training at the Gloucester Summer Race League next year.

6. Club Radios

David confirmed he has placed the order for the new batteries for the club radios.

7. MSC Club Championship

Di advised that entries are being received for the club championship.

8. MSC Winter Race League

A request was made to move the first WRL race from Friday 26th November as a number of club racers will be attending a schools championship at Llandudno on the 27th/28th November.

Action: Di, David to investigate with Ackers if the first WRL race can be moved forward one week to Friday 19th November.

9. Pila Race Camp

Roger advised that the next Pila Race Camp is proposed for 26th December 2021 lasting up to two weeks, coaching the first week and some attendees competing in races during the second week.

10. Coaching licenses in Europe

Roger and Bryan Arnott are currently investigating what options may be available for UK coaches to instruct in Europe following Brexit. This will have implications for both the Pila Race Camp in December 2021 and the John Arnold Training week in January 2022.

11. CESA AGM

Roger advised that the next CESA annual general meeting will be held on Monday 1st November. Roger advised that the MSC club chair normally attends thus Di and David are invited.

12. Date of Next meeting

The next RSG meeting is scheduled for Monday 8th November @ 19:30 to be held via a zoom conference call.
